

Please consider this a letter of support for expanding the current VRS system for deaf people - to embrace any and all VRS services and devices generally available to the public.

In addition, although some Federal offices have VRS, they are severely constrained due to signal blocking. Federal facilities should have stronger repeaters to bring signals to individual users on site.